Native American Natural Healing hemp oil is available in 17 ounces and 1 gallon containers. This cold pressed hemp seed oil is a natural, unrefined hemp seed oil hand crafted in small batches to preserve the nutritional properties and quality of nature's most unsaturated oil. The perfectly balanced, polyunsaturated fatty acids, provide a nutritional packed composition that elevates this oil far beyond basic nutrition. This delicate oil, with a flavorful, nutty taste can be used in a wide range of recipes such as sauces, dips, spreads, and salad dressings or taken straight as a vitamin supplement. Recommended daily intake is one to two tablespoons. Hebicide, pesticide, colesteroll, gluten and THC free.

HempUSA.org products are detoxifying my body like nothing else

Hello HempUSA,

I wanted to join the many people who are finding out that HempUSA.org products are so beneficial. I have had a very serious problem with constipation for most of my life. It was God who found this mess of a body and began to tell me by the spirit what to eat and how to prepare what I ate. I learned about raw foods, juices, and super foods. It was a process, and I faced some very difficult and trying experiences in the pursuit of my health. But God is so faithful if you refuse to quit, and I refused to quit. I am a person who is very sensitive; and many products that are suppose to be so wonderful, my body would reject them which left me wondering about me?! But I have found that what God makes is right, and a product that is as close to how God made it as possible is what works for people. I am not regretting this understanding at all. Somehow my body's acid alkaline balance has always been off when I eat the slightest amount of protein; and I simply did not know how to correct this except by an almost total alkaline diet at all times. I could not eat sweet fruit without feeling like I would get a sore throat, and I have not been able to eat grapes since 1986.

I purchased the HempUSA.org hemp protein powder, hemp seeds, and the oil, and have been using them, not in great quantities, for about a month or so. Something in my body's system is being balanced because I have been able to eat several cantaloupes, a watermelon, and even a medium bag of grapes which I have not been able to do for years and that is a serious change for the better for me. The HempUSA.org oil is wonderful and it seems to be causing me to crave more omega oils in my diet. When I sprinkle a teaspoon or two of hemp protein powder across my eggs, I am very satisfied and have a good energy level. I don't mean to gross anybody out but I am going to tell you that my bowel movements have been very dark and always sink to the bottom of the toilet bowl, which I know is an indication of toxic material leaving my body. I have been trying to achieve results like this for years, and I have tried many things as I know many people are these days.

HempUSA.org products are detoxifying my body like nothing else I have found. I am very thrilled about this development in my life, because I can tell my health is being greatly enhanced. I hope this testimony encourages people to give these products a try.
